OUTLINES.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, assembled in annual session, in Seattle, Wash., had a spectacular parade yesterday, in which 12,000 members took part. From the effects of eating toadstools by mistake for mushrooms, two persons died yesterday and two others, of the same family, are seriously ill at Rochester, N. Y.—At the closing session of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias, in Boston yesterday, Milwaukee was chosen for the place of meeting next year.—The Weather Bureau last night issued a special forecast, stating that a barometric disturbance would advance from the Rocky Mountain districts to the Atlantic coast.—Judge Taft yesterday announced that he would make no comments on publication on the acceptance speech of William J. Bryan. He stated that he would possibly make some references in some future speech.—President Roosevelt has accorded the American athletes, who participated in the Olympic games in London, a welcome to Oyster Bay, where he will greet them in person.—In Los Angeles a man driven insane by religious fever kills his son and daughter and tries to kill his wife.—The National Typographical Union, in its annual convention, makes an important change in its rules.—Boston favors Cy Young with a benefit baseball game and he is given several very handsome presents.—It is said that after the election ex-Governor Taylor, of Kentucky, will return to his State and stand trial on the Goebel murder indictment.—A Pittsburgh man tells in a New York court how he was robbed by a person who was his partner in a scheme to fleece a third person.—The rifle shoot at Camp Penny begins today.—A man at Lincoln tries to kill his wife because she won't talk to him as much as he thinks she ought to.—Mr. Bryan receives many callers yesterday; among them were him to make appointments in this section during the campaign.—New York markets: Money on call easy 1 to 1 1/4 per cent., ruling rate 1, closing bid 1, offered at 1 1/4. Time loans dull, but slightly firmer. Cotton quiet middling uplands 10.50, middling gulf 10.75. Flour steady, with trade slow. Wheat firm, No. 2 red 1.00 1/8 to 1.00 7/8 elevator, options 5-8 to 1c higher. Corn firmer, No. 2, 89 1/2 nominal elevator. Oats easy, mixed 53. Rosin quiet. Turpentine quiet at 39 1/2c.

If this hot weather lasts much longer those canned speeches will be in danger of spoiling.

For that horse's sake we hope Mr. Taft will not attempt to make a horseback canvass of the country.

By the time the sun sets on November 3rd there will have been a good deal of crow-eating in this State.

When the hotel men get through with that check-flasher he will wish he had never faced a Tar Heel hotel proprietor.

According to the Wadesboro papers the Democrats of Anson county have been having a rough house ever since the primary campaign opened.

If the Democrats cannot get along together without abusing and denouncing each other, how do they expect to secure the support of Republicans or independent voters?

We suppose all the candidates' letters of acceptance are in now. There may be one more—from that Western State penitentiary, but we doubt that it will be issued.

We suppose some folks understand the report of the chemist who analyzed the water of the Clarendon Company. We reckon it is all right, but we do not pretend to know anything about it.

Mr. Bryan now knows that he is the nominee of the Democratic party for President, and being made aware of that fact we suppose he will enter upon an active campaign for the election.

If it is understood that Mr. Pritchard is to accept the nomination for Governor just to make the run and is to be given a better place after the election, he will enter the campaign terribly handicapped.

The whole country is anxious to know when Colonel John Temple Graves will make his speech of acceptance of the Hearst party nomination. It will be a terrible slam on the Colonel if he is not given an opportunity to address the public on such an important matter.

It is said the Republicans of Tennessee have split—prohibition being the bottom of the trouble—and that, therefore, the Democrats are sure of carrying the State. Can it be possible the Democrats have to depend on a split in the Republican party to carry such a State as Tennessee?

Raleigh 0, Wilson 3.
Games Today.
Wilmington at Raleigh.
Goldsboro at Wilmington.

About seven hundred enthusiastic fans journeyed to the New League Park yesterday afternoon to see Wilmington take the first of the series from Goldsboro to the tune of 2 to 0. The runs were made in the first inning, after which neither side was able to get a man around the bases. Taken all together the game was a fine exhibition of the National sport.

In the first inning Rath was given free transportation to first base; Hoey was out by being hit by a fair batted ball, then Sharpe came along and put one to right garden, which advanced Rath to third base. Rath went home and Sharpe landed on second when Ross struck out. Smith singled to right field and Sharpe came in amidst a wild demonstration in the grandstand.

Goldsboro had a new man on first base—Hicks, who was secured from Greensboro, the winner of the pennant in the Carolina League. McLaughlin, who umpired the game to the satisfaction of both sides, is also from the Carolina League. He was one of the best umpires used on that circuit. Donald and Cooper, Wilmington's new players from Spartanburg, are expected to be on the grounds today, and McDonald may pitch one of the games, the first of which will be called at 3 o'clock. The other game will start upon the conclusion of the first.

The Game in Detail.
First Inning—James gets single to centerfield; Ryan out for bunting at third strike; Adams sacrifices, Bussey to Hoey, advancing James to second; J. Sullivan out, Sharpe to Hoey. Wilmington—Rath walks; Hoey out by being hit by fair batted ball; Sharp singles to right garden, advancing Rath to third; Ross purposely strikes out, Rath comes home and Sharpe lands at second; Sharpe scores on Smith's single to left field. The grand stand goes wild with excitement. Doak hits to third and is out, third to first.
Second Inning—Hicks hits to Smith, who makes pretty stop and throws him out at first; J. L. Sullivan goes to first on error of Smith; Hill flies out to Sharpe; Hamilton hits one to Rath, who throws Sullivan out at second. Wilmington—Wagner bunts to pitcher and goes out at first; Flynn goes out, third to first; Bussey hits down third base line; Levy runs for Bussey, and takes second on passed ball; Rath gets infield hit, advancing Levy to third; Levy out at home plate, third to catcher.
Third Inning—Caldwell out, Rath to Hoey; James flies out to Sharpe; Ryan gets single to left field; Adams fans. Wilmington: Hoey hits one to pitcher who throws him out at first; Sharpe hits to right field; Ross lands safely on first base on fielder's choice, Sharpe out from short stop to second; Smith gets single to left garden, Ross lands safely on second; Doak hits to short stop and Smith dies at second.
Fourth Inning—J. Sullivan walks; Hicks flies out to Wagner, who makes pretty running catch; Sullivan takes second, and on passed ball from third he takes third; J. L. Sullivan hits to third base and J. Sullivan is thrown out at home plate; J. L. Sullivan steals second; Hill fans. Wilmington: Wagner fans; Flynn fans; Bussey hit by pitched ball goes to first; Ross lines out to left field.
Fifth Inning—Hamilton hits to pitcher and dies at first; Caldwell puts one to third and is thrown out at first; James taps one to Bussey and goes out at first base. Wilmington: Umstead relieves James in right field for Goldsboro. Hoey hits one lightly to short and is thrown out at first; Ross gets free transportation to first; Smith pops out to catcher.
Sixth Inning—Ryan out, pitcher to catcher; Adams hits to left field; J. Sullivan flies out to short; Hicks lands on first on hit to centerfield; J. L. Sullivan flies out to short. Wilmington: Doak flies out to third; Wagner lands safe on infield hit, after a pretty slide; Flynn gets infield hit to second; Bussey fans; Rath goes out, third to first.
Seventh Inning—Hill out, Rath to Hoey; Hamilton pops out to Ross; Caldwell hits to centerfield for one base, but dies in an attempt to stretch it to a two-bagger. Wilmington:

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Colored Odd Fellows Elect Officers and Transact Other Business on Third Day of Meeting—Street Parade.

(Reported for the Star.)

The third day's session of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with Grand Master J. B. Catus presiding. Several matters of interest to the members were acted upon during the day and in the afternoon the annual election of officers took place.

A number of resolutions were offered and referred to the committee on resolutions. A resolution of importance was offered by Prof. J. R. Hawkins, looking to the establishment of a reformatory at the Odd Fellows Home and farm near Newbern. Deputy District Grand Master G. C. Caldwell, presented his annual report, including an account of the doings of the grand directors. N. F. Fuller, treasurer of the Home Board offered his annual report: Receipts $305.54; disbursements, $304.79.

The committee on the Odd Fellows' Home recommended that the sale of lumber be stopped, the farms rented, and a local committee be put in control of the farm.

The Grand Lodge re-assembled at 3 o'clock P. M., with Grand Master J. B. Catus in the chair. The department of fire insurance was discussed and some amendments were made relative to extending the operations of this department. Agents were appointed in various localities throughout the State. The committee on audit and finance reported on the reports of the grand officers.

The hour having arrived for the street parade, the procession was formed about four blocks long and moved through the principal streets to the St. Stephens A. M. E. church, where an address was delivered by Dr. C. S. Brown, of Winton. The auditorium was packed with people and a splendid programme was rendered. Hon. J. B. Catus presided as Master of Ceremonies.

The address delivered by Dr. Brown was pronounced a masterly effort and full of rich information on the principles of the order. After the services in the church the procession returned to Ruth Hall and resumed the work of the Grand Lodge.

The following was the result of the election of officers:

District Grand Master—J. B. Catus, Winton.
Deputy Grand Master—G. C. Caldwell, Gastonia.
Grand Secretary—W. S. Ingram, Durham.
Grand Treasurer—Maurice Watts, Raleigh.
Grand Endowment Secretary—P. A. Richardson, Nashville.
Officers of Insurance Department—J. H. Thorpe, of Kittrells, general agent; J. R. Hawkins, of Kittrells, secretary and treasurer.

SIDBURY'S ASSAILANT.

George Simpson Admitted That He Shot Him and Surrendered. Making an open confession that he was guilty of shooting John Sidbury, colored, who was badly injured last Sunday night in East Wilmington, and is yet in a precarious condition at the hospital, George Simpson, colored, surrendered to Justice Furlong yesterday morning and was committed to jail without bail.

It will be recalled that the parties mentioned engaged in an altercation which ended in a shooting affray and since the occurrence Sidbury has been in the hospital and his assailant remained at large. Sidbury was so badly injured that there is little chance for recovery. The shooting created quite a commotion in the vicinity of Market and Princess streets and the officers have been making every effort to apprehend Simpson. When he surrendered he gave an account of the affair, alleging that Sidbury shot at him four times and he returned the shots in self-defense.

PUT UNDER HEAVY BOND.

Eren Lynns, a Greek, Given Preliminary Hearing for Assault. Before Justice Bornemann yesterday morning Eren Lynns, a Greek, employed at Anderson's restaurant, was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of brutally assaulting James Green, a small negro boy, at Wrightsville Beach Wednesday night. According to the testimony of witnesses the assault was made without the slightest provocation. Green was struck two terrific blows on the head with a bottle, inflicting a painful wound. The justice held the defendant in a $100 justified bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior court. The bond was given with Mr. Charles Anderson, proprietor of the restaurant where Lynns is employed, as surety. Lynns was also tried on the charge of disorderly conduct. For this offense he was fined $5 and taxed with the costs.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH

No Indians Except Croatans Can Attend The School at Pate, Robeson County.

POLITICAL FIGHT IN WAKE

Appeals Made for Funds to Complete Raleigh's New School Building. Governor Glenn in Washington—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 13.—That no Indians except Croatans can attend the Croatan State Normal, at Pate, Robeson county, is a ruling just made by State Superintendent John Duckett, of the Colored Normal and Indian schools. The issue came through a fight by the local management against the children of J. A. Evans attending the school. He and his family had moved there from Johnston county and claimed to be of Indian descent. The children were attending the State Normal when some drummer started a report that in Johnston county the Evans were considered "free negroes." Forthwith the Croatans set about to have them debarred from school and Evans presented papers duly authenticated that the Evans color was due to Indian ancestry, but there is nothing to show that it was Croatan. So the act creating the State Normal specifying particularly "Croatan," it is held, that the Evans children are still debarred from the school. It is anticipated that the case will get into court.

Officers of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons go tomorrow to Creedmore, Granville county, to lay the cornerstone for a fine new public high school building.

Reports comes from Vanceboro that an election for local tax for a public high school is just carried by an almost unanimous vote.

Secretary Henry C. Brown, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, was at his desk again for a little while after a severe attack of typhoid fever. He expects to within a few days resume the full burden of his official duties.

Appeals are being made through the local papers for public subscriptions to a fund of $2,500 necessary for furnishing the new $20,000 public high school building in order that it may be used during the incoming school year. This unusual condition is due to remarkable circumstances. The building, badly needed in Raleigh's public school equipment, was projected and the work under way before the local prohibition movement for ousting the Raleigh dispensary was inaugurated and while the city was enjoying immense income from this source. About the time the building was being completed last spring the dispensary passed out of existence and prohibition was instated. A little later the people of the township voted down a proposition for school bonds to meet deficits that were confronting the school committee. Consequently the Spring term of the city schools was cut short by four weeks, except the High School department which was continued by public subscription in order that the senior class might finish the course and receive diplomas.

The school committee has announced that the funds in sight for the school year will limit the term to 24 weeks instead of the usual 36 weeks and that there being no money available for furnishing the new public high school building, it will have to stand idle the whole year. It is this announcement that has given rise to the movement to receive donations from public spirited citizens in order that the high school children may have the advantage of the splendid and well appointed building.

Governor Glenn has been notified that it will not be necessary for him to go to Chicago this week for the meeting of the national Democratic campaign committee. However, he is detained in Washington over several days.

The Wake county Democratic primaries will be held Saturday and several sharp contests have developed, notably for the county treasurership nomination and for county commissioners. Unfortunate personalities have developed in relation to the candidacy of Captain P. B. Williamson, for the past twelve years county treasurer, and Rev. A. D. Hunter, of Cary, who seeks the nomination, with L. Brown Pegram and Charles E. Crawford also in the race. Rev. Hunter charges Captain Williamson with retaining fees to which he is not entitled under the law and friends of Captain Williamson come back at the minister with insinuation as to his ministerial status in his family relations. To refute this Rev. Hunter issues to voters of the county a signed statement from his family physician, Dr. Templeton. It is generally expected that a second primary will have to be held for the treasurership.

The Republicans of the county will also hold their convention Saturday and it is understood that they will put into the field a full ticket and make a vigorous campaign. Indeed they have high hopes of carrying the county.

THE Y. M. C. A. BANQUET

Delight Event at Tarrymore Hotel Last Night—New Officers Elected—Toasts Responded to Those Present.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the kind ever attempted by the Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association was the banquet given at Tarrymore, hotel, Wrightsville Beach, last night to the active members of the association, about fifty of whom were present. The menu was tempting indeed and the speeches were of an exceptionally high order.

Through the courtesy of the Tidewater Power Company the members of the association were carried to the beach in a special car which left the junction for the beach at 7 o'clock, returning to the city about 11 o'clock.

One of the features of the meeting was the election of the officers for the ensuing year. Dr. Joseph Akerman was re-elected president; K. W. Price was re-elected vice president; J. A. McGeachy was re-elected treasurer, and Dr. J. W. Stanley was elected recording secretary.

Toasts were responded to as follows: "Our Association; How to Promote It," Dr. Joseph Akerman; "Our Churches: What They Have Done For Us, What We May Do For Them," Mr. W. M. Cumming; "Our Members: What We Owe Them," Mr. P. W. Price; "What We Owe Them," Mr. D. G. VaFlade; "What We Expect of Them," Mr. Robert E. Hatch. "Our Absent Friends, What We Know About Them," Mr. S. M. Boatwright. "Forecast, What?" Secretary Kettle.

The following named attended the delightful affair: C. A. Rourke, J. A. Taylor, A. Fleming Kimball, G. C. Summy, D. D. Summy, C. T. Joyner, L. A. Wilson, A. C. Johnson, C. M. Mattocks, E. C. McClellan, J. B. Rice, J. J. Basden, C. E. Land, J. H. Little, D. G. VaFlade, I. H. Zimmerman, Herman Meredith, I. Sharrock, J. M. Rothwell, D. Wilbur Davis, J. A. Tripp, C. Murray, Will Cumming, C. FURNITURE MEN ADJOURN

Wilmington Man Elected First Vice President—J. F. Head Manager. The annual convention of the North Carolina Retail Furniture Dealers' Association, which was held in Charlotte, adjourned Wednesday night after selecting Greensboro as the place of the next meeting and electing the officers for the ensuing year. The following named were elected: President, E. F. Hall, of Reidsville; first vice president, G. S. Boylan, of Wilmington; third vice president, W. T. McCoy, of Charlotte; fourth vice president, W. E. Brothers, of Fayetteville; fifth vice president, G. S. Tucker, of Raleigh; secretary and treasurer, W. B. Summersett, of Salisbury.

Mr. W. T. Mercer, of this city, was appointed as a member of the membership committee, and Mr. J. F. Head, of this city, was elected traffic manager.

DEATH OF MISS FALLS

Young Lady Passed Away at the Hospital Yesterday Morning. Friends of the family will learn with deep sorrow of the death of Miss Lenola Falls, the 15 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Falls, which occurred yesterday morning at the James Walker Memorial hospital after an illness covering a period of several weeks. She had been in declining health for some time.

The remains were conveyed to the home of her parents, on Greenville Sound, where the funeral will be held this morning.

Bond Issue Election at Southport.

Yesterday's Southport Herald says that at the regular monthly meeting of the board of aldermen Monday night definite action was taken towards voting a bond issue of $5,000 for the purpose of improving the streets of Southport and for better fire fighting equipment. It was unanimously decided to hold the election at an early date and the city attorney were instructed to prepare the call for the election.

Funeral of Infant.

The funeral services over the remains of Dallis L., the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dew, whose death occurred at the family residence, 322 South Second street, Tuesday night, were held from the home at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

THE SPIRIT OF 1776

Elaborate Celebration Yesterday of First Triumph of American Arms at Moore's Creek

ADDRESS BY MR. OVERMAN

Estimated That Upwards of 5,000 People Were in Attendance—Meeting of Veterans—Relief for Flood Sufferers—Other Notes.

Upwards of five thousand people assembled yesterday on the historic battlefield of Moore's Creek, one mile from Currie, in Pender county, to engage in the annual celebration of the first triumph of American arms in the War of the Revolution, which has come to be an event of great importance in this section of the State. The day was an ideal one in every respect; the Moore's Creek Monumental Association under the auspices of which the celebration was held was most fortunate in the selection of the Hon. Lee S. Overman as the orator of the day, and not an incident occurred to mar the perfect success of the occasion.

Freshets in many streams and the absence of bridges over several water courses from the recent floods forbade the attendance of many, but early in the morning from every point of the compass the people began to arrive, from city and countryside, and a little later a special and the regular train from Wilmington added to the ever increasing numbers.

The exercises, which were held in the large pavilion recently erected on the grounds, were postponed until near the noon hour awaiting the arrival of still another special train operated from Roseboro and intermediate points to Currie on account of the celebration. Between 200 and 300 people from Wilmington alone attended the exercises while others came in even larger numbers from more than half a dozen other counties of the lower Cape Fear section. The special train from Wilmington to Currie, and from Roseboro to the same point, was in charge of Capt. W. H. Newell, Jr., while the ever popular Capt. Robert B. Branch handled many of the excursions on the regular train. Convoyances were in waiting at the station and the visitors arriving there were handled safely and conveniently to the grounds. A corps of mounted marshals, galloping here, there and everywhere kept the crowds well in hand and the procession moving with the greatest order and precision.

While the crowds were assembling the early arrivals spent the time quite pleasantly in going over the grounds, inspecting the many improvements recently made by the Monumental Association and the two handsome monuments erected on this historic spot—one of the heroes of the memorable conflict and the other, erected last year to Polly Slocumb and the heroines of the lower Cape Fear during that stirring period in the world's history. The Delgado mand, of Wilmington, had arrived early and furnished enlivening music before, during and after the exercises. A number of refreshment stands had sprung up on the grounds over night and these were well patronized by the picnic party.

The large pavilion was appropriately decorated with State and National colors and a number of prominent people from several counties occupied seats on the platform. The assemblage was called to order by President Jas. F. Moore, of the Monumental Association to whom is perhaps due more than anyone else the efforts of the organization to reclaim and preserve this sacred spot and to give to Moore's Creek the recognition in history to which it is entitled.

President Moore's Address.

After a word of prayer by Rev. C. H. Utley, of Burgaw, and a selection by the band, the annual address of President Moore was delivered in forcible and eloquent manner. He said: "Ladies and Gentlemen:— 'I gladly welcome each one of you to this old historic battleground, let us vie one with another in making the day one of rare pleasure. It is our greatest desire, that a visit made to this sacred spot will be a tonic to patriotism, and that it may awaken an interest in North Carolina's Colonial and Revolutionary history.

"It is on the grassy banks of this turbid but meandering little stream that we delight to meet and mingle; to view these old breastworks, to look again on this old monument, to read there those time-worn inscriptions—old, yet ever interesting to us.

"We have here by the courageous acts of our brave forefathers the undisputed claim of the first victory gained in battle, in the war of the Revolution.

"Fellow citizens, none dare dispute this fact, it belongs exclusively to the old heroes of the lower Cape Fear section, by their valiant exploits they were in the forefront of laying the foundation of this great Nation. Let us then not be unmindful of the many sacrifices and trials which they encountered in their seven years of struggle for American Independence. "At our annual gatherings at this

PRITCHARD AND BUTLER.

Marion Butler is again trying to do all the harm he can to his native State. Gratuitously he has put himself in the attitude of opposing what he knows is best for his people and for his State. He is trying again to take the management of the affairs of the State from those most interested in her prosperity and placing them in the hands of irresponsible persons. Not content with the havoc he helped bring about in the nineties, he seeks to carry the State back to those troublous times, and he seeks to do so by a second combination with the man with whom he formerly made a political alliance to be violated and repudiated as soon as it suited him personally to desert. He urges Judge Pritchard as the Republican nominee for Governor, thinking by so doing to gain some personal end for himself. Do not Judge Pritchard and his friends understand Marion Butler well enough to know that he has not taken his present position for the judge's benefit; that he is not acting through friendship toward the judge; that should induce the latter to become the nominee of the Republican party, he would not hesitate to desert him—to betray him to his political enemies the moment he saw it was to his interest to do so? With their recollection of past experience with this man how can Judge Pritchard and his friends place any confidence in him? How can they count on his sincerity in matters political? When Marion Butler pretends to be a man's political friend then that man should be on the lookout for treachery. But we suppose Judge Pritchard knows Marion Butler of old.

HELP THE CAMPAIGN FUND.

The Democratic campaign committee, according to Mr. Bryan, needs half a million dollars for campaign expenses. The question is can this sum be raised in small subscriptions? Will the people—those who can afford to give only in small amounts—realize the importance, the necessity of this large sum being raised? As a rule it is easier to raise a subscription of this amount among a comparatively few men who subscribe in large sums than it is to make it up by small popular subscriptions. The people do not recognize the importance of a big campaign fund and many who are perfectly willing to give their mite fail to recognize the fact that a number of mites will make a large sum in the aggregate. Many men will refrain from making a contribution because they think their ten dollars or their single dollar will not help any and for that reason the party management will lose thousands of dollars. It should not be so. The party managers need every dollar they can get. Every dollar helps; it adds that much to defraying the expenses of the campaign. No man should hesitate to give because he thinks the amount he can spare is too small to be of any account to the managing committee. Because you cannot give in thousands is no reason you should not give in single dollars. Remember that every dollar goes to help make up the sum required and because you can't subscribe in the thousands is no reason why you should not give in single dollars.

BRYAN'S SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE.

The papers, of course, are full of editorial comment on Mr. Bryan's speech of acceptance. Of the many we have read we select one for reproduction, that of the Richmond News-Leader, which we think among the best criticisms of the speech. That paper says in regard to the pronouncement of the Democratic candidate: "The speech of William Jennings Bryan accepting the nomination for President at the hands of the Democratic party is strong, conservative and to the point. There is less of Bryan's individualism and more of the flavor of statesmanship in it than in any utterance of his we have seen for some time. He hews strictly to the line of endorsement of the platform, and in so doing says, among other things: 'I am in hearty accord with both the letter and the spirit of the platform. I endorse it in whole and in part, and shall, if elected, regard its declarations as binding upon me. And I may add a platform is binding as to what it omits as well as to what it contains.' This last sentence is perhaps Mr. Bryan's most significant declaration and commitment. It cannot but be construed as an abandonment of all individual theories which he has advocated, and which have worked so seriously against harmony in the party.

"The speech is good reading throughout, and what with Mr. Bryan's unequivocal pledge regarding the platform, his indictment of the Republicans and his exposition of their inability to fulfill their promises, the slogan, 'Shall the people rule?' should rally the Democracy to thorough reorganization and harmony."

FAREWELL TO HIS NATIVE STATE

In the Louisville Courier Journal a citizen of Kentucky publishes his farewell to the people of that State—his native State, the one in which he has lived from birth up to mature manhood. He leaves the State because of the lawlessness there. He says he is tired of living in the midst of anarchy and where law is wantonly violated and nothing done to preserve order or to punish those who break the law. In his letter of farewell to his State this man says:

"And I know who is the night rider in my county, and my children, now all grown, also know, and I am quite sure that there can never exist the neighborly feeling in my community that should exist in a rural neighborhood. I do not care to meet in church, or school meeting, the men who destroy my property without warrant of law. Kentucky has had much of feuds, but the night rider and midnight assassin is kindling flames that will burn for many years to come. I love peace, and I don't want to be scorched."

This gives a better idea of the conditions in that State than any heretofore published accounts of occurrences there. A man who is a law-abiding, quiet citizen, admits that conditions are such about his home that he prefers to give up that home of a lifetime, to putting up with the worry and anxiety of longer residence there.

A press dispatch states that Washington "society" is interested in the coming nuptials of Frank Ross, white, and Bulla Coats, colored. It further says this is the fourth marriage during the present year in Washington between white persons and negroes. This shows the growing tendency in the nation's capital toward amalgamation. And we are told that the race question has been settled; that the negroes will stay in their place and the white man in his. There will never be amalgamation of the races in the South; but it looks like there is danger of it at the North. Well, they may have it if they want it.

The Republicans concede to the Democrats the election of Congressmen in eight out of the ten districts in this State, but they are going to make a desperate effort to carry the Eighth and Tenth districts. In these two the Democrats must be watchful and prepared to put up a stiff fight. We must not take it for granted that we will carry them. There is a fight before us in those mountain counties and the party should enter into the campaign realizing that it has a fight before it and determined to do the best it can. This is the only way it can expect to win.

We are afraid the Democrats are claiming too much and will thereby become too confident. We cannot believe they will carry Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, with prospects of being successful in Iowa. Such is too good news to be true. The Democrats must not be too sure of these States; on the other hand, they should put up a stiff fight there with the determination that they have these States to win if they can, but not feeling them in their grasp.

Religion seems to be getting mixed up with politics, judging from Rev. Mr. Broughton's sermon in New York Tuesday night. We are sorry to see politics preached from the pulpit. However pure we think politics should be, the pulpit is no place to air a man's political views or express his preference for candidates for political office. Such course lowers the pulpit, weakens the influence for good of the preacher and tends to enslave the voter.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If you managed to worry through Taft's acceptance speech without becoming wind broken, you can certainly pull through Bryan's address without becoming wearied, since it is seven thousand words shorter than the other.

—Charlotte News.

—Once again we approach the fateful November election, with all its attendant brag, bluster and red fire. The campaign liar, the juggler with figures and the inevitable prophet, bob serenely up with the same old gags.—Raleigh Times.

—It is easily discernible from his Wilmington letter, printed yesterday, and from his Washington interview with Mr. McGhee, that ex-Senator Marion Butler is anxious to be boss again. Of the interview it may be said as the darkey said of the white man's speech, "He shore do recommend himself." But will his fellow partymen who got him down after so long and hard a struggle permit him to get up again? Well, hardly.—Charlotte Observer.

—Those West Virginia Republicans continue to camp on Mr. Taft's trail.

They are giving him a warm time, trying to get him to interfere in a local row, each faction, of course, wanting his endorsement with the prospect of Federal pie looming up in the foreground. We wonder if Mr. Taft doesn't feel like making that little speech he made at Greensboro two years ago. It might bear fruit in West Virginia, where the Republican brand is ordinarily of a pretty high grade.—Raleigh Times.

—Taft declines the invitation to be present at the coming State Republican convention. He gives as reason that he "needs rest," preparatory to opening the campaign elsewhere. Since Judge Taft is to appear in Richmond close to the date of the convention here, there were those who believed he would avail himself of the opportunity of covering two States on one trip and would come. Is it surprising, though, when certain things are to be considered, that Judge Taft refuses the invitation to North Carolina?—Charlotte News.

—Lincoln Typographical Union chartered a special car Sunday afternoon, July 5, and made a pilgrimage to Fairview, along with the rest of the "big guns." The union met in regular session and decided to rush business through with a whoop so as to start to Fairview at 4 o'clock. This was done, and at 4 o'clock—it was really a little later—sixty-five union printers boarded a car and made the trip. There were hundreds of visitors at Fairview, but Mr. Bryan immediately gave an audience to the printers. Not only that, but he broke over a rule a little bit and made a short address to the boys.—Typographical Journal.

—The Republicans of Iredell county have endorsed the proposition to place county officers on a salary and to establish recorder's courts with enlarged jurisdiction in criminal cases. The Statesville Landmark regrets that the Democrats of Iredell waited for the Republicans to take the initiative in this matter, and it calls attention to the fact that the present term of Iredell Superior Court spent more than a week in trying cases that could have been disposed of in a recorder's court. That, it says, is evidence of the need of such courts. But, the Landmark says while these propositions have been endorsed by Republicans, they are not Republican ideas. "They have been adopted by Democrats in a number of counties, and for the better, for they tend to more efficient, economical and prompt administration of the law and of county affairs generally."—Charlotte Chronicle.

TWINKLINGS.

—Kicker—What's all that noise in the rectory? Snicker—That's the minister practicing what he's going to preach.—Brooklyn Life.

—Smith tells me he has been graduated from an automobile school.

"Yes; he feelingly refers to it as 'alma mater.'"—Puck.

—Mr. Uglimug—This portrait doesn't look a bit like me. Artist—I know it. I was afraid to make it exactly like you for fear you wouldn't take it.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

—Farmer Honk (musingly)—They say Deacon Klutchpenny's wife was a paragon before he married her, and—

"Mrs. Honk (briskly)—Nothing of the kind! She was a Smith! I knew the whole family."—Puck.

—She—Darling, would you lay down your life for me? He—Gladly, dearest. She—Then suppose you start right in by breaking the news of our engagement to father.—Philadelphia Record.

—"Was it a fashionable wedding?" "Oh, extremely. The bride denied the engagement right up to the altar, and the bridegroom had hired seven cameras to smash."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—"I admire patience and self-control," said Uncle Eben, "but when I see a man dat kin keep on smiling after he done bruise his thumb wif a hammer, I can't help bein' s'picious of his capacity for deceit."—Washington Star.

—"It's really distressing to think," said the wealthy Mr. Farrasy, "that many very common and ignorant people will be admitted to heaven." "Well," replied Mr. Cutting, "that needn't worry you."—Philadelphia Press.

—"He is a staunch admirer of the National game." "What game?" "Baseball. Is there another?" "Well, it is getting to be mighty popular in some quarters to decline to accept a nomination for vice president."—Nashville American.

—"That man tinkering at that automobile was a poor man only a couple of years ago, now he's a successful business man. He's a great pusher." "Well, he needs to be a great pusher if he expects to get that auto back home!"—Town and Country.

—The two sat on the park bench looking at the moonbeams dancing over the lake. "Just one, Doris!" he pleaded. "Sh!" she whispered. "I feel as if some other man were watching us!" Just then the moon accommodatingly went behind a cloud—and the man in it disappeared.—Chicago Tribune.

THE JAPANESE.

He is Child, Fanatic and Emotional Savage All in One.

He is a bundle of contradictions, and, measured by American standards, he is a bedlamite, straight from topsy turvy land. He may be a Chesterfield and a cheerful liar one minute and a red Indian the next—a sycophant and a welsher today and a Napoleon tomorrow.

We westerners have been taught to regard the little Jap as an amusing and precocious child given to obstructing sidewalk traffic with his polite contests in kowtowing, to suspending from the branches of the cherry tree his dainty poems addressed to his friends and to dawdling for hours over the ceremonial tea, and when we see him under the tent flap, bowing and laughing and playing checkers, he seems a velvet pawed kitten in khaki. And yet you and I have seen him in battle a ramping, raging tiger, greedy of Slav bayonets and afterward dragging himself to the field hospital, shot to rags, unwhimpering, a mere bull hide wrapped around a will.

We never know a character until we have seen it put to the test under stress—least of all the combination of sphinx and Janus known as the Japanese. So studied, the embattled brown boy strikes me as a strange compound of Little Lord Fauntleroy, Peter the Hermit and Sitting Bull—child, fanatic and emotionless savage, all in one.—Appleton's Magazine.

OLD VIOLINS.

Reasons Why Ancient Fiddles Are Better Than New.

Fabulous prices are sometimes paid for old violins, and many an enthusiastic musician would part with his last dollar to possess one of the masterpieces of Stradivarius or Guarnerius or another of the famous makers of a century or two ago.

The questioned superiority of these old and often battered instruments has been variously ascribed to the peculiar quality of the varnish used in their construction, to the elasticity of the wood employed and to the ripening and improving effects of age and long use.

Of late years, however, much credence has been given the suggestion of an eminent authority that the real cause of the superiority of the old instruments is due to a peculiar warping of the wood to a higher arch, a buckling caused by the position of the "F" holes and sound post.

It might at first thought be supposed that the same effect could be produced by giving an equal arching to a new instrument, but the effect, if attained, is not permanent, because with age the arching increases until too great a degree of rigidity is the result.—Philadelphia Record.

"Plugging" a Hotel Guest.

The hotel detective stepped out of the elevator and walked over to the counter.

"Well, I plugged him," he said.

"Plugged him? Who? What for?"

Where did you hit him?" quickly asked a friend who was standing by.

"Didn't hit him anywhere. Just plugged the keyhole of his door. Never hear of plugging before? When we have a guest whom we suspect is getting ready to leave without settling or whose credit is exhausted and fails to settle up, we just wait till he leaves his room and plug the keyhole in his door. Then he has to settle up or leave his baggage. The plug fits over the end of a key. It is placed in the lock and turned. The key is then withdrawn, leaving the plug in the door."

—Kansas City Star.

An Oversight.

When Chappie got up the other morning he wandered around his apartment in his pretty pink pajamas, the very picture of woe.

"What's the matter, sir?" inquired his valet.

"I don't know, Alphonse," he groaned.

"I passed a most unhappy night."

Alphonse looked him over carefully.

"Oh, sir," he exclaimed, "I know what was the matter! The trousers of your pajamas were not creased. You must be more careful, sir. Those I had prepared for you were hanging across the foot of the bed."—Bohemian Magazine.

Cannae.

Cannae, where Hannibal won his greatest victory over the Romans, is situated on the opposite side of the peninsula from the city of Rome, on the river Ausidus and about six miles from its mouth. It was from this battlefield that Hannibal sent to Carthage three bushels of gold rings from the fingers of the Roman knights slain in the battle. Cannae is about 200 miles from Rome.

The Worm Turned.

"Am I to understand, then," asked a disappointed poet as the editor handed back his latest productions, "that you do not like my verses?"

"Yes, I don't think much."

"Ah, you don't think! I see—that explains it."

Personally Conducted Tour to

NIAGARA FALLS

at Very Low Rates

Via Seaboard Air Line Railway September 2nd, in Charge of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gattis—Party Will Be Away 14 Days—A Delightful Trip.

To points of interest in and around Niagara Falls, Toronto, Buffalo, Albany, day trip down the beautiful Hudson River, New York, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and Washington City. At Very Low Rates, both Railroad and Hotels, European and American plan, personally conducted by Mr. C. H. Gattis, Traveling Passenger Agent, Seaboard Air Line Railway, and Mrs. Gattis, leaving points in the State Wednesday morning September 2nd, returning home about September 15th, with three (3) to five (5) days stop over at the principal points of interest.

Round trip Railroad fare will cost about $35.00 from Raleigh and Durham, Wilmington about $39.00, and the same basis from other points, and Pullman cars will be provided for the exclusive use of the party with additional cost of about $10.00 per berth, though two (2) occupying the same berth the Pullman will be only half of the above amount for the entire trip.

Special Low Side Trip Rates will be made for the party, over the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Company, Niagara Gorge Electric Railroad, Niagara Falls Park and River Company, and the Niagara Falls Park and River Company, and any other of the side-trip routes that the party may desire to take.

The trip is at the lowest possible party rates that can be secured as the party will travel on party rate tickets for ten or more people, and nothing will be lacking in all the necessary arrangements to make the trip pleasant and comfortable for all.

A more delightful time could not be selected, as early in September is the most attractive season of the year for parties to visit Niagara Falls and the East, time will be spent in Toronto during the Great Canadian Fair, and also during the opening of the theatrical season in New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

Those interested should write to the undersigned at once for details, information, illustrated booklets, and the first applications get the lower berths.

HOTEL MEN DEPART.

Trip Down the River Yesterday Morning Hugely Enjoyed.
As a fitting climax to a series of delightful affairs given in their honor, the visiting hotel men, here for the semi-annual meeting of the North Carolina Hotel Men's Association, were given a trip down the river yesterday morning on the steamer Wilmington.
All the points of interest were visited on the trip and several hours were spent at Fort Caswell.

The boat returned to the city yesterday afternoon, after which the visitors began to leave for their homes, a number of them taking the 7 o'clock train. A few of the visitors will remain in the city a day or two yet.

Death of Confederate Veteran.
Mr. James Pickett, of Pender county, a Confederate veteran, who served throughout the struggle between the States, died suddenly yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at his home at Rocky Point, his death being caused by heart trouble. The deceased has been engaged in farming in Pender county since the war. He is survived by a wife, one brother, Mr. John E. Pickett, of Columbia, S. C.; and four sisters, Mrs. Thomas A. Price and Miss Lizzie Pickett of this city; Mrs. James A.
Sibbury, of Wrightsboro, and Mrs. Alfred Carter, of Hampstead.

Funeral of Mrs. Marium Skipper.

In the presence of a number of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends, the funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Marium Skipper, whose death occurred Wednesday afternoon, were held from the residence on North Third street, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev.
C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church. The interment followed in Bellevue cemetery. Many floral designs were sent by loving friends of the deceased.

Death of Little Son.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Yopp deeply sympathize with them in the death of their little son, Herman H. Yopp, who passed away several days of malarial fever. The little fellow was two years old. The funeral services and interment took place at Holly Ridge yesterday afternoon.

TOADSTOOLS' DEADLY EFFECT.

Mistook For Mushrooms—Two Are Dead and Two Seriously Ill.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Harry Jarrell, of Baltimore, and his sister in-law Mrs. Lillian Jarrell, wife of J.
Oscar Jarrell, of this city, are dead, and Mrs. Jarrell's husband and her mother, Mrs. Margaret M. Scheib, are critically ill from the effects of eating toadstools picked by mistake for mushrooms.

While walking in Durand Park last Sunday afternoon the Jarrells found a large number of fungi which they believed to be mushrooms and picked some, and took them home and cooked them. At supper all partook of the dish. That evening Harry Jarrell was taken sick and his condition became so bad that it was deemed best to remove him to the homeopathic hospital. Despite the efforts of the physicians, he died early today.

The rest of the family felt no ill effects until 4 o'clock Monday morning when all were taken ill. They soon began to respond to treatment and yesterday were in good condition.
This morning Mrs. Jarrell had a sudden relapse and died soon afterwards.
The death of Mrs. Jarrell proved to be a severe shock to her husband and mother, and their condition grew so much worse than it was though best to take both to the hospital where desperate efforts are being made to save their lives.

SECOND FLIGHT POSTPONED

Captain Baldwin Deferred Another Official Test Until Today.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Washington, Aug. 13.—Owing to a ten mile wind from the South Captain Baldwin postponed the second official speed trial of his airship until tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Curtis has repaired the parts of the motor which gave him trouble yesterday and the captain is confident that he will make the required speed of twenty miles an hour. The airship will not be rejected unless less than sixteen miles an hour is made.

In the event the speed trial tomorrow morning proves successful it is likely that Captain Baldwin will make the endurance trial in the evening. In this latter test he was required to make 70 per cent. of the speed shown in the speed trial. The machine must remain aloft for two hours, traveling continuously without overheating the motor.

Captain Baldwin received a congratulatory message from the Aero Club of America tonight expressing the pleasure of that organization over the success of the first airship built for the Government which have proved to be practicable.

place, there is quite another significance, we not only celebrate the patriotic deeds of our progenitors, we teach to posterity love and esteem for our flags and country.

"On this battlefield we have commemorated in marble the deeds of brave men and heroic women and as we pass down the long ages of time, may these statues, altars of liberty, of freedom, and these annual celebrations be incentives to future generations to greater efforts of a nobler civilization, but alas! these beautiful monuments will crumble to earth and be devastated by time, but the principles that we are teaching will go on until the human race shall have been relegated into everlasting oblivion.

"All Grecian orators rejoiced in their democracy. What student of their history does not marvel and admire their once wonderful and enlightened civilization? Demosthenes, whose name throughout the civilized world is a synonym for eloquence, boasted of the great freedom of the people and praised the patriotic and liberty-loving Greeks.

"Roman orators and philosophers continually urged their fellow countrymen of the necessity of eternal vigilance for the preservation of their rights, and they aided materially in making Rome, the then mistress of the world, forever famous.

"Paul, that great Apostle to the Gentiles, has forever made memorable in our sacred writings, the Republic of Rome, when he exclaimed 'I am a Roman citizen.' He was proud to claim citizenship of the greatest and grandest Republic of ancient times.

"Let us then with courage and confidence ever be diligent that this great Government, the world's best hope, shall be handed down to each succeeding generation in all its purity; and with these unsullied principles we can go forward increasing in strength, in power and in glory, and our Republic shall continue to be the North Star which shall guide all advocates of representative government throughout the world.

"Ladies and gentlemen, the Fourth day of July should not be the only day we celebrate, the 12th day of April and the 14th day of June should be memorable days in our history, in commemorating them we foster a great love for the flags of our State and Nation, 'emblems of justice and liberty, bought by the life blood of our forefathers.'

"Carolina, Carolina, we are ever ready to cherish, protect and defend thee.
"By being patriotic North Carolinians we become greater Americans, the whole fabric of our system of government is intertwined in State sovereignty.

"Is there a citizen of our country today so rich or so poor, so high or so low, who would not proudly proclaim to all the world, my home is where Old Glory floats? 'O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.'"

Mr. Moore was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause at the conclusion of his splendid address.

Senator Overman's Address.

Senator Overman was introduced by Mr. Moore in most graceful manner as North Carolina's most distinguished son.

Mr. Overman spoke entirely extemporaneously but his address was a gem of eloquence, singularly appropriate to an occasion of the kind and eminently pleasing to the large audience which applauded him again and again.

Mr. Overman expressed pleasure at the opportunity of visiting a spot so sacred and of speaking to a people so brave and chivalrous. He said at the outset that he must decline to discuss politics upon an occasion fraught with so many sacred memories. He congratulated President Moore and the Association upon the marked achievements of the organization with the appropriation so sparingly made by the National Government in spite of "Uncle Joe" Cannon and referred to a Massachusetts Senator who had inquired "Where is Moore's Creek anyway?" when approached upon the subject of an appropriation for this humble work. Mr. Overman said he had always believed that it was here that were lighted the fires of liberty that had swept to the west and aroused the whole nation, causing the people to rise up and throw off the yoke of oppression. He made no effort to portray the glories of the battle of Moore's Creek—all that was familiar history to the audience. It would not be long until even that Senator from Massachusetts would know and recognize that it was here that American arms were first triumphant in the struggle for liberty. Even the hypocrisy of Mr. Cannon could not prevail against it.

Mr. Overman then gave a vivid, a graphic review of the history of North Carolina in the two wars and the influences that went out from the battle of Moore's Creek and its part in the construction of the Republic. North Carolina had long been too conservative in allowing her history to sleep.
He told of the emigration of the Hugenots, the Puritans and the Cavaliers to these shores to escape the tyranny of the British throne and of their carving out a Nation for themselves in the midst of a wilderness inhabited only by savages and wild beasts. The hand of oppression ordered them across the sea and they determined to be free. The words of Patrick Henry had become immortal because they came as an expression from the hearts of the whole people. He referred to the Mecklenburg Declaration; then that at Philadelphia and gave a running account of events up to the time of the formation of the government.
The roar of the battle of Moore's Creek had its reflex in the surrender at Yorktown and sounded forever the death knell of the King's oppression and the King's divine right. It was a survival of the principle of equal rights to all and special privileges to none, which should form the bases of this government today.

INSANE FROM RELIGION THE SPIRIT OF 1776 SAILORS TAKE FIRST

Taken With Mania For Murder—A Man Kills His Son and Daughter and Makes Murderous Assault on Wife.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 13.—Driven insane by religious mania, H. J. Duffy, 60 years old, today attacked and killed his son and daughter with an axe and then cut his own throat with a razor, inflicting fatal injuries. The tragedy occurred in the extreme northwestern part of the city. Duffy lived at the home of his son, Fred Duffy. He had been on the verge of violent insanity, it is said, for weeks, as a result of religious enthusiasm. Last night he attended a religious meeting and worked himself into a frenzy.

When he arose this morning he was suddenly seized with a desire to kill. Securing a sharp-bladed axe he stealthily entered the bedroom of his son while the latter lay asleep. He crept close to the side of the bed and raised the axe aloft brought it down with terrific force across the neck of the son. The blow was delivered with such tremendous force that the head of the victim was severed completely from the body. With a maniacal shout, Duffy rushed from the house and down the street, waving his bloody weapon. Reaching the house at No. 451 northwest Lake avenue where his wife and daughter resided he opened the front door and entered. Mrs. Eda Lacombe, the daughter, with her mother, was in a rear room. Proceeding cautiously to this room the murderer opened the connecting doors. Mrs. Lacombe stood with her back to him. Without a word of warning he swung the axe high in the air and cleft his daughter's skull. Her whole head was crushed in by the blow.

Mrs. Duffy fled through a rear door, closely pursued by the maniac striking at her with the axe. The woman succeeded in eluding him, but not before she had received a severe gash on the elbow from the axe swung by Duffy as he chased her.

Mrs. Duffy cries finally attracted the attention of neighbors who came to her aid. Duffy then walked to the street where he drew a razor from his pocket and slashed his own throat, inflicting frightful injuries which will doubtless cause his death.

Several weeks ago Duffy went to the Evergreen Cemetery and purchased a lot, explaining that he wanted it for himself, son and daughter. Three days ago he purchased a coffin for himself.

Fred Duffy, the son, was 24 years of age and unmarried. He was an automobile machinist. The daughter lived with her husband, Ferdinand Lacombe, a painter, and their six year old daughter. Mrs. Duffy and her husband had been divorced and she had gone to the home of her daughter to nurse her through approaching confinement.

PYTHIANS CHOSE MILWAUKEE.

The Close of the Biennial Meeting of Supreme Lodge.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Boston, Mass., Aug. 13.—The Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, voted today that the next convention be held in Milwaukee, which had already been selected by the Supreme Assembly of the Uniform Rank of the order. The formal vote today stood: Milwaukee 87; Richmond, Va., 23; Colorado Springs, 22; and Mackinac Island 65.

—Spencer, Aug. 10.—There can be no doubt as to the panic being over here, and better times coming in the immediate future. The Southern rail way shops are opening up again and men who have been idle for six months are again at work. The machine and erecting shops have been increased over fifty per cent, while the blacksmith shop, the boiler shop, the paint shop and other departments are teeming with activity. The round house is working full time. In the shops mentioned above, the men will work six eight-hour days per week. In the car department the men will work five days a week instead of four. The increase to the force is very pleasing to the people here and means much for Spencer, and the shop men are jubilant.

mately of the appropriation by Congress for Moore's Creek, said no less a historian than Senator Lodge, another man from Massachusetts and a student of history, had told him that he had investigated Moore's Creek and there was no longer any doubt in his mind but that it was the first victory of the Revolution.

Mr. Overman next gave an interesting analysis of the influence of the State in the formation of the government, scoring point after point for State sovereignty, home rule and local self government and showing that a strong centralized government at Washington was never contemplated by North Carolinians and other leaders who helped carve out the fortunes of this Republic. Mr. Overman deplored the present tendency toward centralization and in the same connection made a brilliant defence of secession, which he said was now recognized by constitutional authorities everywhere.

This gave opportunity for a fine exposition of North Carolina's part in the Civil War, his references to the fortunes of the South, the Confederate soldier and to Dixie being cheered to the echo. He then drew a picture of the return of the Southern soldier after the War, paid beautiful tribute to the women of the South and gave a glowing description of the matchless South as she stands today. Love of country, love of home, love of freedom—these were ascribed as the elements that had made for the South's greatness, which lies not in a great standing army, not in a great navy, nor in prowess abroad but in the character of the people, of our great American citizenship.

The Call to Dinner.

Mr. Overman received a great ovation upon his conclusion, the applause having subsided only when Mr. Geo. J. Moore moved to the undivided attention once more with an announcement that dinner would be served in the grove adjoining the pavilion. For more than an hour at improvised tables the needs of the "inner man" were carefully looked after, the visitors becoming the guests of the good ladies of Pender and adjoining counties for this delightful repast. After dinner the crowds again disposed themselves about the grounds and in the pavilion while the young people nearby in still another pavilion "tripped the light fantastic" to their heart's content.

Meeting of Veterans.

The only thing on the programme for the afternoon was the annual meeting of David Williams Camp, U. C. V., the veterans having been most cordially welcomed in a neat address by President Moore. The meeting was presided over by Commander J. W. Bowden while Adjutant N. R. Crook acted as marshal and secretary. Comrade D. J. Corbett had been expected to be present and address the soldiers but a telegram from him regretted his inability to be present. Brief addresses were made by Captain W. P. Oldham and Brigadier General James I. Metts, commanding the Third Brigade, North Carolina Division, the latter having responded to calls and sung with much gusto, "I'm a Jolly Old Rebel." A resolution was passed that in future the annual reunions of the Camp be held simultaneously with the Moore's Creek celebration. Captain R. P. Paddison announced the Winston State reunion and the old soldiers disbanded to enjoy an afternoon of social intercourse about the grounds.

For Flood Sufferers.

During the great gathering during the day, County Commissioner Geo. J. Moore made a touching appeal to the people for financial assistance for those who recently suffered so extensively from the floods in the lower end of the county. It was announced that donations would be acknowledged and put to good use upon remittance to either of the three ministers in Burgaw, Revs. C. H. Utley, W. M. Sykes and J. J. Barker. The relief committee is composed of Messrs. R. P. Paddison, F. B. Orr, W. H. Lewis, John D. Everett, A. T. Herring, C. E. Woodcock, E. E. Murphy, G. J. Moore, E. A. Hawes, Sr., J. E. Henry, H. F. Brinson, W. B. Henry.

No Low Railroad Rate.

Contrary to an official letter from the Passenger Department of the Atlantic Coast Line to President Moore, of the Monumental Association, passengers from Wilmington yesterday were charged 90c for the round trip to Currie and return whereas a rate of 60c had been promised. It was stated to some that the newspapers had made a mistake in stating that the rate was 60c. Such is not the case. Mr. Moore holds a letter from the A. C. L. quoting that rate and upon that authority announced that the rate from Wilmington and return would be 60 cents.

THE UNION PRINTERS.

Their Annual Convention—An Important Change in Rules.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 13.—The delegates to the International Typographical Union convention today decided to hold the next convention at St. Joseph, Mo.

With this question settled the convention took up several proposed changes in the general laws, but the only one adopted was that abolishing substitute lists in all union offices. The change it was stated will open all union offices to all union men who can get a job.

At the afternoon session addresses were made by George L. Berry, president of the International Printing Pressmen's Union, of Cincinnati; Robert Glocking, president of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders, and Chas. H. Taylor, Jr., representing the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

John Mitchell, of the National City League was a guest of the convention.

EX-GOV. TAYLOR TO STAND TRIAL

The Former Kentucky Governor to Return and Stand Trial

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 13.—The Evening Post says:

It is announced today on the authority of a close friend of Governor W. S. Taylor that Mr. Taylor immediately after the November election will return to Kentucky from Indianapolis for trial on the charge of complicity in the Goebel murder. It is also considered probable that the case, upon change of venue, will be transferred to Louisville.

Mr. Taylor has always stated his willingness to return to Kentucky and stand trial provided that he could secure a fair trial and would be granted bail.

During his canvass for Governor, A. E. Willson stated that Mr. Taylor would certainly return to Kentucky for trial if he (Willson) was elected and that Mr. Taylor would be given a fair trial.

Information from Frankfort is that Governor Willson has decided not to bring this matter up pending the campaign. He is determined not to make the Goebel case a political issue and will take no steps until the election is over. Immediately after the election, however, he will notify Mr. Taylor that the time has come to face trial and dispose, in one way or the other of the charge against Taylor.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—William S. Taylor when shown the dispatch from Louisville this afternoon regarding his probable return to Kentucky for trial after the election said:

"I don't know anything about it. That's all I have to say and that's all I want to be reported as saying. And it is the truth. I do not know anything about it."

Special Forecast of Weather Bureau

Also Shows Rising Temperature.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Aug. 13.—The Weather Bureau tonight issued a special forecast of conditions likely to prevail over a large area from Saturday to Tuesday inclusive as follows:

A barometric disturbance will advance from the Rocky Mountain districts to the Atlantic coast from August 14 to 18, crossing the Plains States Saturday, the Central Valleys and Lake region Sunday and Monday, and the Atlantic coast States Monday and Tuesday, preceded by rising temperature, attended by rains that will cover the corn and spring wheat States, and followed by a period of lower temperature.

Souvenir dance at Lumina tonight. Next Monday night the beautiful Butterfly dance.

Mrs. Louise A. Collie wife of Willie Collie the comedian, was discharged from custody yesterday in New York, and the charge against her of defrauding an Atlantic City Hotel of a $42 board bill was dismissed by Justice Markley in Jersey City. Mrs. Collie was arrested Wednesday when she arrived from Atlantic City. She showed the justice today the board bills paid in advance as late as August 4th.

The liquidation of the old Panama Canal Company which has been going on since 1889 was completed yesterday when the civil tribunal of the Seine authorized a last payment to creditors of one per cent. and issued a decree of discharge to the receivers.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Taylorsville Scout: From all appearances there must have been a "leech" bit of brandy made in this county already, and it is safe to say that anybody who wants it is buying it in quantity desired.

—Pender Chronicle: Mr. A. H. McLendon of our town, was seen last Monday with a small apple twig one foot long which bore 20 well developed apples. Mr. McLendon grew these on his farm, in the country.

—Durham Sun: Cornelia Parker, colored woman, cut her husband's throat in Dunn, ran off with Henry Simmons of this city, was captured by Sergeant Aldridge and is now back in Dunn awaiting to be tried for her crime. She was taken back late yesterday afternoon by Officer Tart, who came here for her.

—Pender Chronicle: Mrs. Julia Thigpen killed a rattlesnake about five miles from Burgaw. It had 12 rattles and a button and measured six feet. Also another one of about the same size was killed near the river by Mr. J. L. Carbutt of Rocky Point section, he killed four Pilots also.

—Greenville Reflector: On Monday about noon Mr. Frank Harris, who lived at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Jesse Hardee, in Swift Creek township, committed suicide by jumping in a well. Mr. Harris had been in feeble health for some time and had on one or two previous occasions threatened to take his life.

—Winston-Salem, Aug. 12.—News reached here today of a bold robbery at the home of Mrs. Eliza Burton, near Ruffin, on last Monday afternoon, between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock, when the family was absent. An axe was used to smash a window through which the thief gained entrance to the dwelling. He broke into five trunks, taking more than $100 in money and a quantity of jewelry.

—Newbern Journal: Two or three of Newbern's brilliant citizens, fearing lest their foot prints might not appear upon the sands of time, went up on Metcalf street the other day and pranced around on the new laid sidewalks that their tracks might be left on something. An unfeeling law immediately set scouts upon their trail and yesterday the mayor required them to lay down an amount of filthy lucre for the privilege of leaving the imprint of their hoofs for the admiration of posterity.

—High Point Enterprise: The party who did the three robberies Sunday night is the same man it is supposed, who endeavored to enter Mr. Hial Bencini's house in the extreme northern part of the city on the same night. Mr. Bencini was awakened by his dog's persistent barking and later he heard a suspicious noise on his premises. Getting a revolver he hastened to the door just in time to see a man making for the tall timbers in the rear of his home. He opened fire, but didn't get his man, the shots going wild.

—Statesville Landmark: A horse with a mane three feet and two inches long was on the streets yesterday. It is the property of Ed. Graham, colored, who lives in north Iredell, and was driven by one of Ed's sons. The mane was recently clipped off because it had grown so long that when the horse would put its head to the ground it would cover his head, and he would step on it when he walked. The negro who was driving the horse yesterday said that his father had decided not to clip the mane any more and will let it grow as long as it will.

—Statesville Landmark: During the past ten or fifteen days many carloads of granite from the Mt. Airy granite quarries have passed through Statesville on westbound freight trains between ten and twenty cars passing through each day. The local freight from Salisbury brings five or six cars as far as Statesville every morning and leaves them here for through trains, which pick them up and take them further west. Practically all the granite is in small blocks and is being shipped to Cincinnati, where it is being used in paving the streets. Many more cars will pass up the road before the Cincinnati order is filled.

—High Point, Aug. 12.—Last evening a lady of this city who does not want her name mentioned was going down street towards her home when she noticed a negro following her in a suspicious manner. She crossed the street and the negro did likewise and she at once discerned that he was after the money in a pocketbook her husband had given her to carry home, which transaction the negro evidently witnessed. She called a policeman and as the officer of the law started towards the negro he took to his heels and soon got away.

—Gastonia Gazette: At the July meeting of the board of county commissioners the following order was made: "It is ordered that so much of the order of this board made on the first Monday in June, 1902, levying a tax of 75 cents on each taxable poll in the county for road purposes be rescinded; this order is made in obedience to the opinion of the Supreme Court in the case of the Southern Railway vs. Commissioners of Mecklenburg County." The effect of the above decision referred to was that the county can not exceed the constitutional limit of $2 in imposing poll taxes. For several years, ever since the custom of requiring each taxpayer to work so many days on the roads each year was abolished, an extra road tax of 75 cents has been assessed in addition to the regular $2. The effect of this order of the board will be to reduce the amount received on poll taxes in the county about $2,500 yearly.

Rock Candy Syr. vs. Thin People

Thin and delicate people would do well to remember that there is nothing more health-giving and tissue-building, than PURE ROCK CANDY SYRUP. It is exceedingly wholesome and nutritious. Combined with the pure juices of various fruits, the combination is not only nutritious and wholesome, but very palatable.

Many people, and not a few in Wilmington, mix rock candy syrup with vanilla or some other favorite flavor and use it for eating with batter cakes, waffles and the like, and there is nothing more delicious, palatable and nutritious than such a combination for breakfast. Breakfast foods and such "fodder" are simply not in it with rock candy syrup.

Pure (absolutely so) Rock Candy Syrup can be obtained by the pint, quart, or any quantity from the

KNIGHT'S EXCURSION TO COLUMBIA.

Knight's excursion to Columbia on Monday, August 24th, offers an opportunity that may never present itself again to see the new, beautiful city, which, Phoenix like, sprung from the ashes in which General Sherman left it on February 16th, 1865, when with the exception of one small cottage on Main street not a building was left on that street, everything on it being burned for one and a half miles, and in a belt from a quarter to a half mile wide. Eighty-four squares containing 366 acres and 1,300 homes were destroyed. Go to the new and prosperous Columbia of today and wonder at its phenomenal rise.

Knight's excursions are patronized by the best people everywhere and you will make no mistake in going. Train leaves A. C. L. station Monday, August 24th, at 7:00 A. M. and will leave Columbia on the return Tuesday at 9:00 P. M. There will be separate cars for white and colored passengers. The round trip from this point is only $2.50. au 12-to-24.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Aug. 13.—The cotton market was much less active today with the undertone nervous and small traders inclined to go cautiously pending some better information as to the extent and character of the remaining long interest or some decided change in the spot or crop situation. The close was steady at an advance of 3 points on August, but generally unchanged to 5 points lower with the late positions relatively firm. Sales were estimated at about 175,000 bales.

The market opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 2 points under scattering selling, promoted by a bearish view of yesterday's sharp break and continued good weather in the South. The Liverpool market however, was a little better than expected, there was no renewal of yesterday's sensational liquidation and shortly after the opening the market did better on moderate buying by reactionists. After advancing to 9.20 for October and 9.00 for January, or 10 to 12 points net higher, offerings increased and the market soon turned easier under a renewal of bear pressure and Southern selling, the latter being supposed to reflect the favorable progress of the crop and the approach of the early marketing season. October eased off to 9.03 under this selling but in the late trading was slightly steadier as a result of covering and closed at 9.06. There seemed to be some selling of October against purchases of December probably for old straggle accounts which is supposed to explain the relative steadiness of the later positions. The second day of the dry goods auction is said to have been less satisfactory than yesterday, with the prices realized lower and the buying less animated. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Receipts today 3,195 bales against 3,418 last week and 675 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 21,933 last week and 8,771 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 422 bales against 33 last year and at Houston 2,108 bales against 494 last year. Spot quiet; middling uplands 10.50; middling gulf 10.75; sales 900 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Aug. 13.—The dry goods market was irregular and quiet today, interest still centering in the big auction sale of cotton goods. The distribution there during the day was wide, but prices fell off as compared with yesterday. All the blankets were disposed of and the selling of domestics, canton flannels, twills, etc., was begun. Prices on the latter were better relatively than those obtained on blankets. Cotton yarns were dull and irregular in price. A better inquiry at lower prices was reported for heavy grey goods but the selling was limited. Raw silk held firm. Men's wear agents said the season is dragging.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, Aug. 13.—The manner in which the market acted today proved very puzzling to the conjecturers who attempted to explain it. A lull in the activities of the powerful party in the speculation which has favored the advance by all the devices of leadership and manipulation was evident. A party of professional operators acted on the evidence to move on the short side of the market and helped the reaction that resulted in the withdrawal of the fostering measures of the bull party. This bear movement was conducted with extreme caution and with signs of timidity covering operations being resumed at small recessions in prices. The amount of liquidation induced by the recessions in prices proved moderate and there was nothing like the precipitancy in unloading with which so prolonged an advance has occurred usually culminated.

Late in the day the particular weakness of the Rock Island group gave a suggestion of more influential leadership for a bear turn in the market and the attack on prices became somewhat more aggressive with a weak closing at the lowest. The action of the market was attributed to purely technical causes and found no explanation in any positive development in the day's news.
There was nothing alarming in the day's news from the crop regions, although differences of opinion are expressed among expert authorities as to the extent of the harm done to corn and spring wheat. The sub-treasury continues to make large contributions to the supply of banking cash and the level of the interior exchanges indicates that the customary demand for currency there is tardy in showing itself.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,624,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 744,000 shares.

TOURIST'S INSURANCE.

A few points to note—
My personal baggage is worth $1,000. I am going on a Summer's outing, visiting the different resorts, Summer hotels, a trip to the Mountains or down to the Beach, where I carry it all.

INSURANCE? No! - Never thought of it, though I carry it at home of course. AND YET a few dollars will buy a TOURIST'S FLOATER, covering Fire everywhere, and practically all hazards of transportation, including Fire, Collision and Derailment.

What is a few dollars added to my Summer's expense, for this PROTECTION?

FRANK HERBST,

ALABAMA PROTESTS INCREASED RATES

Will Make Complaint Against Action of Southwest Territory Railroads.

ALLEGED ILLEGAL COMBINE

Complaint Also Calls Attention to New Rates Effective Aug. 10th—Similar to Action in Georgia and Texas.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Washington, Aug. 13.—Strong protest against the action of the railroads in the Southeastern Territory in putting into effect on August 1st increased rates on grain, grain products, fresh meats, packing house products and hay, will be lodged with the Interstate Commerce Commission within the next two or three days on behalf of the State Railroad Commission, of Alabama. This protest will be brought to the attention of the commission in a formal complaint against those railroads somewhat similar to the one recently filed with the Commission by the A. P. Morgan Grain Company and others of Atlanta, Ga. and elsewhere but will, it is understood be couched in more vigorous language.

Notice of the Alabama Railroad Commission's intention to take such action was given to Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission when W. D. Nesbit and Samuel W. Weakley, commissioner and counsel respectively, of the Alabama Railroad Commission held a brief conference. Later they discussed with Judge Knapp the form of complaint which they would file with the commission and tomorrow will hold a more extended conference with him relative to the matter.

The complaint will also call attention to it is understood to the increased rates effective August 10th in the Southwestern Territory which the Alabama Commission claims affects their State Commissioner Nesbit declared today that the increased rates would have a very injurious effect upon the State of Alabama. He asserted that the alleged agreement between the traffic managers to increase their rates on certain commodities constituted an illegal combination in restraint of Interstate Commerce Commission and in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

TAFT WILL NOT COMMENT.

Republican Will Refer to Bryan's Acceptance in a Speech.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 13.—No comment for publication in the newspapers on the acceptance speech of W. J. Bryan is to be made by W. H. Taft. This decision was announced by the Republican candidate today even before he had opportunity to read the Bryan speech. This reading, he said, he wished to do with great deliberation, and should its perusal make a reply necessary or advisable it will be made the subject of a speech included in a speech Mr. Taft may make at some future time. His next speech will be delivered here a week from next Friday to a gathering of Virginia Republicans, who are coming to the mountains for a general rally.

There was a sudden relaxation to the tension of yesterday when political conferences were held every minute. Mr. Taft devoted the morning to his mail and to Mr. Vorys, his chief of staff. The West Virginia politicians who still remain have telegraphed for A. C. Scherr, the Independent Republican candidate upon whose arrival tomorrow it is expected an understanding will be reached as to what manner of questions will be placed before the Republican National committee for solution in the desire to eliminate one of the two State tickets or ascertain which of the two shall be recognized by the National Committee.

THE NATIONAL RIFLE SHOOT

The Contest to Begin Today—Teams From the States Arriving.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Camp Perry, Ohio, Aug. 13.—Taps sounded tonight for time-tired riflemen after a strenuous day's work getting in the final practice for the twenty-sixth annual tournament of the National Rifle Association which will begin tomorrow. This tournament will continue until August 20th and will be followed by the national matches under the auspices of the national board and under the direction of Lieutenant Colonel R. K. Evans, general staff U. S. A.

Teams representing Colorado, Wyoming, Texas and Massachusetts arrived today. The Fort Pitt Rifle Club, of Pittsburgh, arrived today for the inter-club match which also will be held tomorrow.

The Ohio National Guard individual match today was won by Sergeant Adkins, of the Fourth, by a score of 229.

ATTEMPTS TO KILL HIS WIFE.

A Nebraska Man Shoots Wife Because She Won't Talk to Him.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 13.—Because his wife would not talk to him as frequently as he desired, William Lush, one of Lincoln's wealthiest German citizens fired four times at her with a revolver late this afternoon and then attempted suicide. One of the bullets tore through Mrs. Lush's hair, but she was uninjured. Lush was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital. He will live, as the bullet merely chipped his skull. The Lushes had been married thirty years.

PRESIDENT WILL GREET ATHLETES

Contestants in Olympic Games in London Will Arrange to Go to Oyster Bay.

THE NEW YORK RECEPTION

Twelve Disqualified Athletes Arrived Home Yesterday—Other Features for the Big Reception Arranged.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
New York, Aug. 13.—That President Roosevelt will meet and congratulate the American athletes who took part in the Olympic games in London is likely although the President cannot be in this city to participate in the celebration being arranged in their honor. A letter from the President to that effect was received by Secretary McLoughlin of the Olympic athletes reception committee. The President's letter said:

"My Dear Sir: I have been very glad to have been named honorary President of the American Olympic reception, but it will not be possible for me to go to the city of New York to attend the reception. If the members of the team can come out to Oyster Bay I shall be sincerely glad to see them here at my house and greet them in person. Sincerely yours, Theodore Roosevelt."

Arrangements probably will be made by the athletes to visit the President.

The committee in charge of the reception also received a letter from Governor Hughes, in which the Governor said he would be glad to arrange for the participation of the National Guard in the parade that will take place on the day the team arrives.

Twelve American athletes, including John C. Carpenter, of Cornell University, who was disqualified after finishing first in the 400 metre race, returned to New York today on the steamer Majestic. In relating his version of the much-discussed incident of the race, Carpenter said:

"I have no recollection of having touched Lieutenant Halswell at all. I feel keenly the injustice of having been disqualified for alleged unfair tactics. I did nothing to warrant my disqualification."

Carpenter asserted that he had witnessed of the race who would substantiate everything he said about the matter.

Among other of the athletes on board the Majestic were Forest Smithson, who won the 110 metres hurdle race, breaking the world's record; J. A. Rector, who finished second in the 100 metre hurdle; E. T. Cooks, who tied with D. Gilbert in the pole vault; W. G. Burroughs, of Chicago, and M. A. H. Griffin, of Indiana. At a meeting tonight the committee having in charge the details of the reception to the athletes decided to invite Mrs. Roosevelt and the Roosevelt children to view the ceremonies on August 29 from a stand to be erected at the City Hall. Acting Mayor McGowan will send the invitation on behalf of the city to Sagamore Hill tomorrow.

At tonight's meeting it was suggested that Governor Hughes be asked to bestow the gold medal upon the eighty odd Olympic athletes and to make a speech of presentation. Arrangements have concluded by the music committee to have 1,500 singers at the City Hall. "My Country 'Tis of Thee" will be sung to the accompaniment of ten massed bands.

HONORS TO CY YOUNG.

A Benefit Game in His Honor—Handsome Presents Made Him.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Boston, Mass., Aug. 13.—Nearly 20,000 persons from all over New England attended today's benefit for Denton Tecumseh (Cy) Young, of Peoli, Ohio, the Boston American League baseball team's veteran pitcher, at the American League grounds. Three silver loving cups, a traveling bag and two big floral pieces were presented to Young. The largest cup was given to Mr. Young by his many admirers through a local newspaper. Lieutenant Governor Draper made the presentation.

Manager Fielder Jones, of the Chicago American Club, presented a large silver cup, given by the players of the American League. One other cup was given by a friend and the traveling bag was given by the umpires of the American League. The Boston National League Club gave a big floral offering.

The main attraction besides "Cy" himself, was a game between the Boston nine and a team of star players picked from the other American League clubs.

A STRENUOUS DAY FOR W. J. BRYAN

Many Callers on The Candidate at Fairview Tendering Invitations to Speak.

SOUTH'S DEMAND FOR HIM

Wanted in Several Sections of the South—His Appreciation of This Section's Loyalty—Talks About "Big Stick."

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 13.—Invitations to visit various parts of the country and deliver speeches came thick and fast on William Jennings Bryan yesterday. California's request for a visit again was pressed upon him by Charles Edelman, of San Francisco, with the result that the Democratic candidate is giving the matter serious consideration.

Readville, Mass., wants him there on August 25 to witness the trotting Derby, the first event of the kind ever to occur in the United States. As Mr. Bryan on that day will be in Indianapolis, he was compelled to decline.

Through Henry C. Clayton and R. H. Walker, Montgomery, Ala., expressed his desire for his presence on August 19th. Mr. Bryan expressed a desire to go South. He said that he always had been cordially received there and was greatly indebted to the Southern people for their uniform support and kindness, but that the campaign was too young at this time for him to make any definite announcement as to his engagements on that date. He hoped that after a conference with the National committee he might be able to go to Montgomery and possibly some other points in the Southern States in response to numerous invitations.

"I am glad to say," Mr. Bryan remarked, "that all these invitations assure me that I will receive the electoral vote of not only Alabama but of all other Southern States."

An incident of the day was the presentation to Mr. Bryan by several hundred farmers from Otter county, Nebraska, of a "big stick" gourd, grown in the State. It is about five feet in length and easily might be taken for the original, if there ever was one, which has been so generally caricatured. It bore the inscription "Billy's Big Stick," painted in large black letters. Mr. Bryan, although expressing his thanks for the gift, declared that if elected to the Presidency, the "big stick" would not be wielded, rather relying on his ability to lead people through their love than to control them through their fears.

"The gourd which you present certainly looks very much like the 'big stick' as we have seen it caricatured," said Mr. Bryan, "and I think that the gourd is a fitting emblem to represent Republican policies, for the 'big stick' which has been so loudly praised, has not accomplished a great deal in the way of actual legislation. The Republican leaders have so steadfastly opposed reform that the 'big stick' has been quite as empty as this gourd—in actual results. Then, too, the gourd may fitly symbolize the hollowness of Republican promises and the fact that Republican policies have nothing in them of good to the farmer. I shall glad to accept the 'big stick' gourd, although if the Democratic party wins the 'big stick' will not be in evidence. The Democratic is not a party of coercion by force, but a justice that will appeal to the heart of men for it is easier to lead people through their love than control them through their fears."

"I have been informed that on the way to Lincoln a collection was taken up on the train and that 50 farmers gave $1 apiece to our campaign fund. I want to thank them for this manifestation of their interest in our cause. In 1896 the free excursion was one of the features of the Republican campaign. It is significant that you not only pay your fare to attend this notification meeting, but in addition make this contribution to the campaign fund. One of the chief reasons for the delay of reform has been that a few great corporations have been supplying the Republican party with its campaign fund and then controlling policies after election. Our campaign fund is coming from the people and the people will control the administration in case of Democratic victory. It marks the beginning of a new era in politics, an era in which the Government will really belong to the people and be administered by the people for their own protection and for the advancement of the public welfare."

Notwithstanding a great number of hold-over visitors to the notification came out to Fairview, Mr. Bryan found time to dispose of considerable correspondence and make good progress, with the speeches he intends to deliver at Indianapolis and elsewhere.

Mr. Isaac Reese, of Tennessee, recently appointed a member of the financial committee by Chairman Mack, who had been in attendance on the notification meeting, talked with Bryan this morning. He left later for Chicago to confer with the National committee in regard to the collection of campaign contributions in the Southern Mississippi valley. Mr. Reese wears a button bearing a picture of Mr. Bryan. Above the picture are the words "I gave a dollar" and below it "Did you?"

Before leaving he declared that the South was with the West in the support of the Democratic platform. "Unless we can have a return to the rule of the people," he declared, "we must suffer from the rule of Mammon."

Mr. Reese said he was very much interested in the matter of campaign contributions and would spend all his time until election day in getting small contributions from as large a number of people as possible. "I want Mr. Bryan to go into the White House with no obligations except to the masses," he said.

Chairman Clayton upon leaving the Bryan home today expressed himself in a statement given out for publication as having been delighted with the large and enthusiastic attendance of the people at the notification of yesterday. "I have attended notifications," said he, "and the ceremonies of yesterday were the most orderly and enthusiastic I ever have witnessed. The people of Lincoln, irrespective of party affiliations, did everything possible to contribute to the attendance, the orderly procedure and the enthusiasm of the occasion. The notification committee is indebted to Governor Sheldon, postmaster Sizor and every city officer from Mayor Brown down for courtesy and kindness."

NEW ZEALANDERS ENTERTAINED

Officers of Atlantic Fleet Took Them Aboard The Louisiana.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Auckland, N. Z., Aug. 14.—The officers and men of the Atlantic fleet entertained two thousand New Zealanders today aboard the battleship Louisiana. Among the throng were handsomely gowned women. The officers, with great courtesy showed their visitors every part of the great fighting machine and explained to them in detail the working of the intricate mechanisms.

H. A. Myers, the Mayor of Auckland has written W. A. Prickett, the American Consul General, extending his congratulations and those of the citizens of Auckland on the orderly conduct and sobriety of the crews of the battleships.

Mother do you have pains in the chest? If so get bottle Goose Grease Liniment and use it as directed and your pain will be gone.

THE EDISON PHONOGRAPH IS A CASE WHERE THREE IS COMPANY AND NOT A CROWD.

Two people and an Edison Phonograph can pass a very pleasant evening. This does not prevent it from being the best entertainer for any kind of a gathering, from an informal evening up to a large reception.

If you don't know the possibilities of the Edison Phonograph, come into our store and hear what it can do.

For the Traveler

a "companion bottle" is almost essential. Traveling is fatiguing work and an occasional "nip" is often appreciated. But you want to carry the best and purest of liquors, the kind that does no injury to the system and leaves no bad after-effects. That is the kind we keep—the best grade of Liquors distilled. Our Wines are equally pure and superior in grade.
